KYU NEWSLETTER

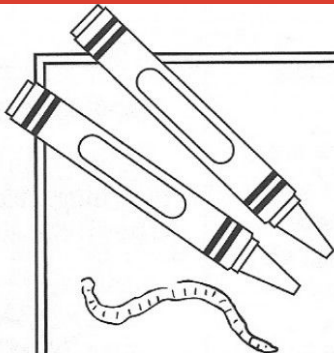

This month, we celebrate as a nation, the independence of America. It's an exciting time, one filled with family, food, and fireworks in celebration of the freedoms we enjoy. As Christians, we are free in Christ and should sin-free as possible. But as a citizen of this nation, we enjoy some freedoms our ancestors only dreamed. Has this always been a joyous holiday for all? Not likely. Just read the words of Frederick Douglass, "What to the Slave is the 4th of July?" Written over 160+ years, this timeless piece still reverberates truth today.

A graphic with the words "SHOUT OUT!" in a bold, stylized font. "SHOUT" is in white with a black outline, and "OUT!" is in red with a black outline. The background is a blue and white radial burst pattern. The graphic is flanked by two solid red squares.

SHOUT OUT!
