A Day of Thanks and Giving

BY THOUGHT PROVOKING
PERSPECTIVES

Thanksgiving is a season that should be for reflection on successes, challenges, and life's many blessings. As I reflect on the year that was, I am thankful that I woke up this morning,

"Make allowance for each other's faults, and forgive anyone who offends you. Remember, the Lord forgave you, so you must forgive others." Colossians 3:13 (NLT)

WHO KNEW?

About 200 cranberries are needed to make one can of cranberry sauce.

Jingle Bells was originally written as a Thanksgiving song

First published in 1857, Jingle Bells was written by James Lord Pierpont and intended to be sung on Thanksgiving. If you listen carefully to the lyrics, you'll notice there's no mention of Christmas!

The world's largest bible book weighs 1,094 pounds. The world's smallest bible can fit on the tip of a pen called a Nano Bible and you should be too. I cannot understand, and dare I say believe that we live in a country once known as the breadbasket of the world; yet we see and witness so much hunger in the land. Our government in an attempt to camouflage the impact of this suffering has created a new phrase – “Food Insecurity.” SHOCKING!!!

I am one who firmly believes that giving of yourself to the benefit of others is humanities greatest gift. Being a benevolent spirit, I have experienced my share of mountains, milestones, and valleys. Also, my generosity has sometimes been viewed as a weakness, which I am pleased to say that it has not turned my heart into stone. To that point, my heart requires the blessings and the reward of giving. However, what I have learned is that you don't give to those who want your help, rather to those who need your help!
